

TRANSITION BAGS – Ultra Race competitors only.

Who gets?

Transition Bags are supplied to ULTRA RACE competitors only. The Ultra Race competitors will get their bags at registration. Each competitor will get Two (2) bags. Red – Bike Bag and Black – Run bag.

What are Transition Bags used for?

Transition Bags are used by ULTRA RACE participants to put their equipment into and to then hang on the transition racks provided, as per your race number. They are compulsory and allow you to neatly store all your Bike and Run clothes and accessories you need for each stage of the triathlon.

When can I rack my transition Bags?

Transition bags can be racked from 5am Sunday (Race Day) until 6:50am on Sunday. No bags can be racked the day before race.

How do Transition bags work during the race?

During check-in and prior to the race, ULTRA RACE participants must put their BIKE Bag and RUN Bag in their corresponding places in the Bike Bag and Run Bag area, the bags must be racked according to the athlete's race number, each hook will be marked accordingly. All bags must be placed by participants on the racks, no 3rd party is allowed to rack bags for them.

BIKE Bag

The Participant must put all their cycling equipment in the bike bag for the bike leg of the race (helmet, glasses, cycling clothes if you are going to change, shoes gloves, race belt and race number, etc). After the swim stage, you collect the BIKE bag on the way to the transition tent. Inside the tent you take out your BIKE items in the bag and put all equipment you have used for swim leg (wetsuit, cap and goggles) into the bike bag and drop the bag at the designated bag drop area located outside the changing tent when you run to your bike. Our Staff will re-hook them according to your race number back on the BIKE bag racks.

RUN Bag

In the RUN bag you must put your running items, Shoes, gels, cap or clothes if you are planning to change after the cycling stage. After the cycle leg, you collect the RUN bag. Inside the change tent you take out your RUN items out of the RUN bag and put your BIKE items (cycling shoes, helmet, etc.) into the RUN bag. When you are ready for the run leg, you must drop the RUN bag at the designated bag drop outside the changing tent. Our Staff will re-hook them according to your race number back on the BIKE bag racks.
